PROPOSAL

Artist in Residence

A Formal Art-for-Stay Exchange

Andrea Whitt is a Los Angeles-based painter and touring musician operating at the highest level of both disciplines. Currently touring with Moby, she has shared stages with Shania Twain, Stevie Wonder, Slash, and Ariana Grande, and recorded with Kendrick Lamar, Frank Ocean, and Kamasi Washington. Her paintings — ink, watercolor, oil — hang in private collections across the country and have been featured by Playboy, Marie Claire, and Britt & Co.

She paints iconic hotels, beach clubs, desert landscapes, and musician portraits. During her stay, Andrea draws from the environment, architecture, and ambiance — the work is entirely of that place. One original painting is gifted to the hotel as a permanent installation; additional works scale with the length of stay. The hotel also receives museum-quality giclée prints of everything created on property, along with the ability to resell and gift limited edition prints.

How It Works

A WELL-ESTABLISHED MODEL

Hotels including The Ritz-Carlton Toronto, Belmond Mount Nelson, and Hotel El Ganzo have long-running artist-in-residence programs. Winston Churchill painted at La Mamounia in Marrakech. Picasso lived and worked in Mougins. The artist-in-residence exchange is proven, prestigious, and beloved by guests.

THE EXCHANGE

The hotel provides complimentary accommodation for the residency period. Andrea creates 2–5 original paintings inspired by the property — one is gifted as a permanent installation. All remaining works are Andrea's to exhibit and sell. All content is shared across Andrea's channels with the property featured throughout.

WHAT THE HOTEL RECEIVES

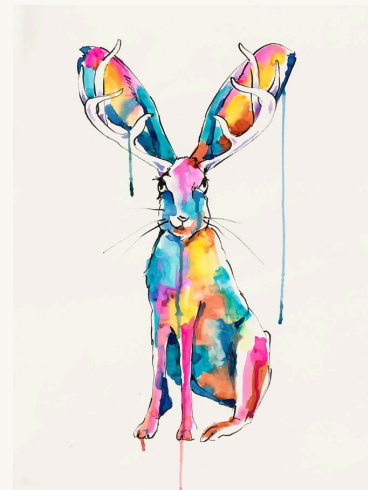

- At least 1 original painting (market value $4,500–$12,000) as a permanent installation on property
- Museum-quality giclée prints of all works created on property, plus the ability to resell and/or gift limited edition prints
- High-quality content: process reels, finished artwork reveals, editorial photography
- Social coverage across Andrea's channels — property tagged and featured throughout
- Authentic creative narrative — a story your guests will encounter and remember
- Content rights shared with the hotel for use in your own marketing and social

CONTENT DELIVERABLES

- Minimum 1 short-form Reel per stay, featuring the property
- Behind-the-scenes painting process documentation
- Finished artwork reveal post across Instagram and YouTube
- Content rights shared with the hotel for their own channels

Let's collaborate.

If your hotel would like to explore a residency, we'd love to discuss the details — artwork style, content scope, dates, and mutual fit.

Andrea is currently booking stays in Southern California, Mexico, and Costa Rica from May through mid-June. European stays are available in September, after her summer tour with Moby concludes.

We're happy to share a full portfolio PDF or arrange a call at your convenience.
